The election of Senator Pritchard has brought joy to the Republicans, as they now claim his election insures a majority in the Senate favor-

A Canton, Ohio, dispatch of yesterday says:

"Information received here today and during the last 10 days makes it certain that the Senate of the United States will be favorable to the enactment of protective tariff legislation. Major McKinley is more intested in restoring congdence and prosperity than he is on the mere filling of offices and a good deal of his time which the public thinks is occupied with questions relating to patronage is really consumed in thought and discussions bearing on policies."

It seems assured that as soon as he gets into his seat President Me-Kinley will call an extra session of Congress to pass a new tariff bill.

The Republicans who were elected on the sole and single issue of the gold standard, take the first opportunity to pass a new tariff act on the lines of an act that was overwhelmthe nation in 1892.

But a tariff law giving protection to all the trusts and favored industries is Mr. Mark Hanna's only way of paying the debt he owes the great corporations for their enormous contributions to the McKinley campaign fund.

The Republicans are only arrang ing to pay their election expenses.

THE Raleigh Tribune, the Republican organ of the State, is now attacking Senator Butler in the severest terms. Here is a sample:

"From henceforth he is a political Ishmaelite. He will be pointed out as Butler, the traitor; Butler, the ingrate; Butler, the faithless. Scorned and despised by the brave and true Democrats of the State, he is an object of pity and contempt to his former allies, the Republicans of North Carolina. For months he has been an object of suspicion, of cold and studied neglect upon the part of his distinguished colleagues in the Senate. A creature of political accident, he rose rapidly to high estate. His descent has been as rapid. So may it always be with ingrates, and false and faithless of outraged communities.-Chrismen. It begins to look as if our good city is to be punished for the sins of a few former Democrats in the last election. It will be a sore punishment to our people if this infamous police commission is saddled upon us by the men these bolters helped to elect. A blot upon the good name o North Carolina is the existence in and about Albemarle Sound of a band of men and women, who call themselves "Lynchites," and who, under the guise of religion, are practicing free-loveism and other things contrary to the laws of the State and of God. They profess to be sinless. Their doctrines will allow a hus band to leave his wife to take a "spiritual" wife, or a wife to leave her husband to take a "spiritual" husband. Mormonism, as bad as it is, is respectable beside the ways of the "Lynchites," if we have been one kind of law that will reach this evil and that is the civil law.
